Including flexibility & design Classic has produced another stunning design with an outstanding result.

An impressive home from start to finish ...

The Wakehurst is another signature design from Classic. The creation of this magnificent residence, as with all of Classic's homes, includes flexibility and design and has produced an outstanding result. Exceptionally large, open living areas with high, cathedral ceilings transition into a stunning outdoor entertaining area with room enough for optional dining and living areas.

Classic Building has designed a home that is both functional & spacious with every space in the home having been utilized & carefully thought about.
