The creation of this magnificent residence, as with all of Classic's homes, includes flexibility and design and has produced an outstanding result.

Spectacular split level Contemporary meets country design from Classic Building.

The creation of this magnificent residence, as with all of Classic's homes, includes flexibility and design and has produced an outstanding result. Exceptionally large, open living areas with high, cathedral ceilings transition into a stunning outdoor entertaining area with room enough for optional dining and living areas. The large glazed areas including the gable windows allow an abundance of protected natural light in the house and coupled with the carefully designed breeze paths, the home passively creates a high level of thermal comfort inside.

Classic Building has designed a home that is both functional & spacious with every space in the home having been utilized & carefully thought about.
